

Chief's biography

Chief Don Zumwalt began his law enforcement career in 1990. Through the years he has worked SWAT, bike patrol, FTO and as FTO coordinator. He spent 15 years on patrol and as a patrol supervisor. He was promoted to Lieutenant in 2006 and appointed Chief of Police in August of 2008. Chief Zumwalt has a Bachelor's Degree in Management and a Master's degree in Criminal Justice from Kaplan University. Chief Zumwalt is a graduate of the FBI's National Academy Session 231.

Chief Zumwalt is an adjunct faculty member at Great Basin College and a member of the North Eastern Nevada Officials Association refereeing high school football and basketball.